BEGINNERS SWIM CLASS AT AQUATIC

'58 Aquatic Season Away And Running

The Kelowna Aquatic's official summer season gets under way tomorrow, with a big "Open House" for visitors, from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m., but the activity in the pool has been hectic for the last fortnight.

The first class of beginners swimming students graduated on Tuesday, following their course in the fundamentals of swimming, and the province-wide Red Cross water safety instructors' course graduated another 35 the same day, following a five-day course. (See pictures above.)

In charge of the swimming program for the Aquatic this year is Mrs. Jane Wood (nee Stirling), a former Kelowna girl, including several classes of now living in Los Angeles. Mrs. Wood returned here this year with her husband and child to head the pool activities, a job she is thoroughly conversant with, from past experience.

Duplessis Policy Attacked; Grit Demands Ballot

QUEBEC (CP)—Liberal Leader Jean Lesage has asked Premier Duplessis to let the people decide in a provincial general election on his Union Nationale government's policies in connection with the sale of Quebec Hydro's gas facilities to the Quebec Natural Gas Corporation.

During a press conference Wednesday the Liberal party chief demanded the resignation of Mr. Duplessis' Union Nationale administration, the dissolution of the provincial legislature and the calling of a general election. The government was re-elected in 1956 for a five-year term.

Memorial Services For Bridge Victims

VANCOUVER (CP)—A memorial service for the 19 men who were killed in the collapse of part of the new Second Narrows bridge here will be held Sunday in Empire Stadium. The service will be sponsored by local 97 of the Iron Workers Union.

Borden Hears Westcoast Loses Millions On Export

TORONTO (CP)—The Borden Northwest Pipeline Company, office, said the Canadian company was getting eight per cent less than it should for gas from the U.S. outlet. It was losing about $1,800,000 a year.

Westcoast was selling gas to Pacific Northwest for 22 cents for 1,000 cubic feet when it cost 22.22 to produce.

Three other companies hired by Westcoast estimated it was making a profit but they disagreed on the size of the gains.

Bomb Probe Continues 'Round Clock

RCMP are continuing an around-the-clock check on motorists in the Okanagan and Kootenay areas, in an attempt to uncover a lead that will bring an end to terrorist activities in the southeast corner of the province.

The $7,500,000 Lake Okanagan bridge is being guarded 24 hours a day, while guards have also been placed on ferries. Princess Margaret will open the bridge July 19.

Explosion Sunday of a bomb planted in a washroom of a Kelowna hotel and discovery of other bombs on the M.S. Lequime and a power pole at Armstrong extended and intensified the RCMP operations.

SPECIAL PROBES

Reinforcements have been brought in from outside, and two special investigators from the criminal investigation bureau are working on the case.

In Kelowna, police last night checked drivers' licences and searched cars. A spokesman said this is a normal procedure at this time of the year. Main purpose, however, was to check on persons with criminal records who may be passing through the valley, and see BOMB PROBE—Page 10

GAD, GENTLEMAN! SHOCKING! WOT!!

LONDON (Reuters) — A stunned war office today confessed it was true—a mounted sentry, helmeted, plumed, breastplated, had spoken.

The sentry, a member of the Life Guard Regiment, distinctly said to a tourist guide who was telling a party of American tourists how life guards never speak and never move on duty: "You're a liar."

"The matter is being investigated," a war office spokesman said.

Cafes Ready To Feed Big Bridge Influx

Kelowna and District Restaurant Association has taken a "second look" at the feeding problem in connection with the official opening of Lake Okanagan bridge July 19.

Restaurateurs now have agreed that organizations which have adequate cooking facilities be allowed to serve meals to the thousands of people expected here for the ceremony.

Eric Loken, president of the restaurant association, at last night's special bridge committee meeting, admitted that his group had not sufficient time to fully realize the gigantic task involved in catering to visitors, and that cafe operators agreed they would not suffer financially if facilities were set up by recognized groups.

Several weeks ago women's organizations of the United church, Anglican church and Canadian Legion offered to provide eating facilities, but last week it was turned down, with thanks, after the local restaurant association stated they could adequately handle the crowds.

Mr. Loken did not think the health authorities would allow open-air eating facilities, for fear of food poisoning.

Victoria Okays Bridge Plaque

Victoria approval has been received to erect a plaque on the Okanagan lake bridge as a tribute to Premier Bennett, Mayor R. F. Parkinson advised city council Monday night.

The plaque is expected to be installed just prior to the official opening of the bridge by Princess Margaret July 19. It will give recognition by the city to the contribution made by the premier in fostering and carrying out the construction of the bridge across the lake from Kelowna to Westbank.

Congress Kills Surplus Plans

WASHINGTON (CP)—The big U.S. farm surplus disposal program is dead—but only temporarily. Congress is expected to revive it within the next week or so.

Queen, Royal Circle Activities Again Blasted By Altrincham

LONDON (Reuters)—A young British peer, bent on beefing up the monarchy, boomed into print again today with some new ideas on how the Queen should reign.

Lord Altrincham published suggestions for lifting the British monarchy out of the "humdrum." He allowed 11 months for the howls which greeted his first public criticism of the royal circle to die down.

His article in the July issue of the magazine National and English Review, which he edits, suggests that if the monarchy is to survive at all it must pay more attention to the Commonwealth.

He urges the Queen to take up successive periods of residence in other Commonwealth countries and blasts the practice which puts Commonwealth work "secondary" to royal duties and pastimes in England.

The 34-year-old aristocrat notes that the Queen took time to watch the spring horse show in England but delegated Princess Margaret to officiate at the April inauguration into the Commonwealth of the West Indies federation.

Lift-Span Operates; Troubles Resolved

The lift-span of Lake Okanagan bridge was put into operation for the first time last night, at 8:15 P.D.T.

And early tomorrow morning the final section of a 175-foot steel span will be floated into place, linking Westside and Kelowna for the first time with a floating pontoon bridge.

David C. Gough, resident engineer for Swan, Wooster and Partners, bridge consultants, said many adjustments have to be made before traffic will flow over the bridge. The adjustments take care of a rise and fall of the lake up to four feet, and will probably take three or four days to complete.

Princess Margaret will officially open the $7,500,000 structure on July 19.

The bridge builders have been plagued by several short circuits in the lift span. However, these now have been located, and Mr. Gough said the lift section is working satisfactorily.

The final steel section cannot be floated into position until the lift span is properly operating so that the tug boats and barges can ply between Penticton and Kelowna.

"When the last span is in position, a six-inch concrete deck and sidewalk will be poured. Meanwhile finishing touches have been put on the other steel sections already in place.

The causeway road leading through the City Park has been hard-surfaced, and it is expected Harvey Avenue between Abbott Street and the Vernon Road will be completely black-topped within the next week.

Storms Construction Co. crews are working feverishly to prepare Harvey for asphalt. Boulevards have been torn out to make way for widening of the road, and provision has been made for storm drains.

In recent weeks there have been many rumors to the effect the lift span would not be ready for the official opening.

However, with the short circuits now located, Mr. Gough gave assurance the lift span is operating to the satisfaction of the engineers, and the while this has set them behind schedule, the structure will definitely be ready for the official opening.

Fleming Deplores 'Gloomy Wailing'

OTTAWA (CP)—Finance Minister Fleming deplores opposition criticisms of his 1958-59 budget as "a wail unworthy of Canadians."

Mr. Fleming spoke just before the Progressive Conservative majority buried a Liberal motion of non-confidence by a vote of 161 to 47. The vote came on the seventh day of the eight-day budget debate which is to be concluded today.

POWER AID

In other parliamentary developments Wednesday:

1. Prime Minister Diefenbaker announced the federal government's terms for aiding the $185,000,000 South Saskatchewan River power-irrigation project. They include payment of 75 per cent of the cost of the earthen dam itself and a federal loan to cover half of the province's 25-per-cent share of the dam, whose cost is expected to be less than $100,000,000.

2. Senator Leon M. Gouin (L—Quebec) said lack of publicity is the main reason for criticisms that the Senate is "practically useless."

3. External Affairs Minister Smith tabled in the Commons a 10-year agreement permitting the United States to establish and operate aerial refueling facilities at Cold Lake and Namao, Alta., Fort Churchill, Man., and Frobisher Bay in the Arctic for the U.S. Strategic Air Command.

4. Labor Minister Starr said he will recommend to the Canadian Pacific Steamships and the Seafarers' International Union that they submit to arbitration of their labor dispute and resume strike-bound ferry service on the west coast.

Sommers Trial Justice Faces Another Thorn

VANCOUVER (CP)—Mr. Justice J. O. Wilson, trial judge in the politically-potent Sommers bribery-conspiracy trial, faces a new problem today.

Last week the Justice ruled that the "limitation" section of the old criminal code of Canada—excluding prosecution for a bribery charge more than two years old—did not apply in the trial involving former lands and forests minister Robert Sommers, three other executives and four companies.

But he remarked at the time that he was open to reconsideration.

Mr. Justice Wilson listened attentively to this new facet of the long case. But he gave no indication as to when he might consider and rule on the involved point of law.

B.C. ROUNDUP

VANCOUVER (CP)—An estimated 25,000 spectators greeted the three canoes of the Fraser brigade Wednesday as they completed a 600-mile five-week voyage down the Fraser River from Prince George, B.C.

VICTORIA (CP)—About 600 delegates to the 23rd annual Junior Chamber of Commerce convention were on their way home today, weary after a fine burst of business and social gatherings. Jack O'Rourke of Chatham, Ont., was elected national president, narrowly defeating his only opponent, Bob Gilmour of Ottawa.

VANCOUVER (CP)—The council of the B.C. College of Physicians has suspended the licenses of a number of Vancouver eye specialists for three months for engaging in a kickback scheme. The suspension will begin Aug. 6, allowing time for appeal.

PRINCE GEORGE (CP)—British Columbia's three-man Public Utilities Commission faces a battle today for trial to July 7.

LATE FLASHES

Kelowna Gets Free Concerts

First of a series of three free band concerts will be presented in City Park tonight at 8 o'clock, under the direction of Mark Rose. Concert will feature the Senior City Band and is being presented on behalf of the Centennial Committee as a free attraction.

RCAF Jets Under Joint HQ

OTTAWA (CP)—The RCAF nine jet interceptor squadrons and all its radar stations have been placed under the operational control of North American Air Defence Command, it was learned today.

Few Graduates Unemployed

VANCOUVER (CP)—John F. McLean, UBC director of student and personnel services, said today employment opportunities for the 1958 graduating class have been much better than anticipated. Only a handful of graduates were still looking for jobs.

Used House Market Urged

OTTAWA (CP)—The federal government was urged today to take action to create a "used house market" as fluid as the new car market. The suggestion was placed before the Senate finance committee by Maurice Joubert, president of the National House Builders Association.

Seamen To Vote On Arbitration

VANCOUVER (CP)—Striking seamen were to vote today on a government proposal that they return to work and agree to arbitration of their wage dispute with Canadian Pacific Railway. The Seafarers International Union is conducting its vote in Vancouver, Victoria and Nanaimo. Results were expected late today.

Patino Loses Damage Suit

PARIS (Reuters)—Bolivian tin king Antonio Patino lost a 1,000,000-franc (about $25,000) damage suit Wednesday against his wife, Princess Cristina de Bourbon, for having him arrested in the United States six years ago.

Interpretation Of The News; Not Fraudulent Reporting

Over in Nanaimo last weekend, a labor leader attacked the Nanaimo Free Press and the Vancouver Sun for what he called a "scurrilous attack" on labor. He said the two newspapers indulged in fraudulent reporting when they said that 35 percent of the IWA members voted against striking rather than saying 65 percent voted for strike action.

This reminds us of the old example of what is "news". The example was simple: if a dog bites a man it is not news; if a man bites a dog, it is news.

The fact that 35 percent of the members voted against striking was the news value of the story. This condition had been brought about by labor itself which for years has been reporting that 95, 97, 99, 92 percent of union voters supported this or that strike action. So frequent were these 90 percents that anything less than that figure was news. Certainly if it was news that 35% voted against strike action. Any newspaper alert for a news "angle" would have so reported it, and rightly so. Certainly there was nothing "fraudulent" about it.

This incident is a reminder that people and bodies very quickly cry "unfair" when anything appears in a newspaper which they do not happen to like, which does not support their own opinion or their own actions.

Last week, the Hunteville, Ontario, Forester, editorially commented upon this situation in these words:

"Beware of the community where there is not some modicum of sensitivity or conflict between the local newspaper and the officials of government," was a recent warning of Fred S. Auger, publisher of the Winnipeg Tribune, and it is noticeably true in many cases.

"To most students of municipal, provincial or federal affairs, one of the greatest mistakes made at all levels of government of the people, is that at some stage those governing begin to think they are themselves, the people, and it is the duty of the press to maintain a vigil as the eyes, ears and voice of the people which will keep those forces in restraint."

"Such vigil does not necessarily mean that the newspaper must be always full of criticism of government. It is the intention of every editor to be helpful to both the government and the people of his community, and where criticism is levelled at some group, it is very often followed by some constructive suggestions of overcoming the difficulty. In all instances it is the intention of the editor to draw to the attention of the collective body what he feels is the feeling of the people of his community. Criticism is very rarely levelled at an individual, and except in such rare instances should not be taken personally by any individual."

"Individual and collective freedoms are regularly found violated by legislative or corporate bodies. Were it not for a diligent press such freedoms as religion, false arrests and convictions, arbitrary action by trade unions and restrictions on trade and business would never be exposed. As long as the press maintains its freedom and is supported by strong public opinion, the public are assured the essentials of our freedom will be preserved."

Secretary In Hot Water

A pretty and demure secretary in the Trade and Commerce Department at Ottawa has become the centre of a frightening howdy-do. She posed in the uniform of a nurse, complete with cap and black band, nurses pin and a happy smile on her face, knowing that the picture would be used in a promotional booklet on nursing and health. Then the Post Office Department decided to use the picture as the foundation for the engraving on the little purple five-cent stamp to be issued July 30.

She is Florence Sullivan, and she admits that the nurses of Ottawa, have a case against her, but was not worried about what the nurses would say. But the nurses say that the uniform, cap, collar and pin and the black stripe are emblematical of their profession, and they should be worn by a nurse not a secretary. Miss Sullivan suggests that the new stamp is not a nursing profession stamp but a health one. She got only $5 for posing for the picture.

Among the comments that were made from the profession in Ottawa, was one from a night nurse, who remarked that Miss Sullivan is too "fresh looking". "They couldn't use one of us—nine out of ten of us are too haggard-looking."

Probably the controversy will rage from one end or the country to the other. Nurses will hold indignation meetings, pass resolutions and possibly refuse to lick the glue on the back of the new five-centers. Newspapers will do as the Ottawa Journal, publish pictures of comely local nurses and suggest that any of them would be preferable to Miss Sullivan. But if an Ottawa nurse had been photographed for the booklet and the stamp, think of all the nurses across the country who would be sure that one of their class or their hospital group, would make a much more acceptable picture.

There is one thing sure and certain, Miss Sullivan looks much more like a nurse, than the pictures of Canada's wild animals that have appeared in recent year's stamps. She looks more like a nurse than the picture of the muskox looked like the real animal. She looks more like a nurse than a "news-paper" depicted on the stamp issued to honor "A Free Press", looks like a Canadian newspaper.

Ecuador Also Has Problems

QUITO, Ecuador (AP)—Ecuador, like the peoples of other Latin American countries, have long had their economic problems. But without the embarrassment of revolutions, most of them feel that all can be solved with understanding and help.

Ecuador is a land of lofty Andean mountain peaks, of hot, humid, coastal lowlands bordering the Pacific, and a primeval world of virgin forest stretching into the eastern lowlands that form part of the upper Amazon river basin.

It is a poor country, but possibly potentially rich. Much of it still is unexplored.

Indians make up over 50 per cent of the population, the mestizos (mixed) account for 25 per cent, 15 per cent are Negro and 10 per cent white. Total population is 4,000,000.

Basically, Ecuadorians live by agricultural exports. Their country is the largest exporter of bananas. Coffee goes out, too. The country has had a basically stable government for the last 12 years, with presidents filling out their scheduled terms without the embarrassment of revolutions.

But Ecuador long has been living close to the borderline between solvency and insolvency. The government has received $40,000,000 in world bank loans. These are being used to build highways, railways and transportation and communications facilities. A port is being built at Guayaquil, the biggest city with a population of 400,000.

The government recognizes there must be adequate transport and communications systems before substantial capital can be lured into Ecuador to explore and develop untouched lands that might yield mineral resources.

Maureen O'Hara Withdraws Suit Against Magazine

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Actress Maureen O'Hara has withdrawn a $1,000,000 libel suit against Confidential magazine. Her lawyer said terms of a settlement would remain undisclosed.

Miss O'Hara and other Hollywood figures were subjects of articles in Confidential which became the basis of a sensational Los Angeles trial in August, 1957. It ended in a jury disagreement. Later Confidential and its sister publication, Whisper, were tried again on the basis of the first trial transcript. They were convicted of conspiracy to publish obscene matter and fined $5,000 each.

ST. THOMAS, Ont. (CP)—A bell found in Eight county that was thought to be a Great Lakes vessel will ring the call to worship at the Roman Catholic church in Azua, in Santo Domingo. It was presented to Rev. William McNabb, Canadian missionary stationed in the West Indies, by a local priest.

The government of President Camilo Ponce Enriquez, which inherited an enormous national debt and a virtually empty treasury when it came into power in 1956, has managed to maintain a comparative degree of economic stability.

But there is poverty everywhere. Conservatively, 50 per cent of Ecuador's people cannot read or write. Per capita income is around $160 a year. White-collar employees often get $50 to $75 a month.

THE LIFE SAVER

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

WORLD HORRORS

The Editor,
The Daily Courier.

Dear Sir:

President Eisenhower is quoted as saying of the recent execution of Hungary's Imre Nagy that he cannot think of any incident that could have, and has, more shocked the civilized world. The U.S. House and Senate calls it "barbarism and perfidy."

Reasons of cold war expedience no doubt carry weight in causing these expressions of horror used so successfully at the time of the Hungarian rebellion, to be brought out again. Indeed the success of the second run may well be as great as the first, but actually in terms of brutality and horror the Hungarian executions are a poor second to that of Julius and Ethel Rosenberg on orders of an American court some six or seven years ago.

Father and mother of two school, or pre-school age children, hardly fifty Americans will remember on what trifling spying charges these two pathetic "nobodies" were indicted. No shots were ever fired in anger for any act of theirs, no blood was shed, no property was damaged, no scores of thousands were uprooted from their homes, as in Hungary, and dispersed to the ends of the earth. The Rosenbergs trafficked in illicit governmental documents. It was, as every American and the President must know, a judicial murder used as a sacrifice offering to the rising anti-Communist hysteria sweeping the U.S.A. at the time. Certainly the President must turn his shock and horror on and off at will since there is no evidence that the Rosenberg brutality ever even shook the Eisenhower needle; whereas the "Nagy" affair—being useful as a cold war weapon—the needle goes to the "on" position and shakes him to his very core.

It must be about time for all the old women of both sexes to quit clucking and clacking about the sad fate of one more unsuccessful rebel. Executed rebels come a dime a dozen in every country and climate. The ghost, for instance, of Louis Riel, still hovers, it is said, over the jailhouse in Regina, and once in a while slips into the museum to see the rope that hanged him.

still on display. And who hanged Sir Robert Casement and ten other Irish patriots for their part in the ill-fated Easter rebellion of 1916?

Can the reader think back to the execution of Pierre Laval of France? Will the reader remember how "traitor" (in quotations because who can tell a patriot from a traitor?) Laval had his stomach pumped out (he had taken poison) was hurriedly tied to a supporting post and hurriedly shot before he could die? None of these things come to the President's mind. His needle is in the "off" position and doesn't even quiver.

Germans reported as angrily throwing stones through Russian embassy windows may be dismissed as likely being some of Hitler's old storm-troopers enjoying a work-out under new management.

The British are hanging Greek rebels in Cyprus right now; the French torture Arab prisoners in Algeria but the Eisenhower shock mechanism doesn't register. These are friends.

Let us draw the blind on this uproar; outside of wartime, the worst and wildest orgy of sham and hypocrisy the world ever saw, taking note while we do that Eisenhower, Macmillan and other contributions notwithstanding, most of the responsibility for the shambles lies with the editorial pages of the western world, busy themselves creating these distortions that are making peace forever impossible.

Yours truly,
WM. MORRISON.

REMEMBRANCE DAY

Editor,
The Daily Courier.

Dear Sir:

With reference to your issue, Friday, June 27, containing an article by the Venerable D. S. Catchpole re: "High Days and Holy Days" and the particular mention that even the Canadian Legion sticks in a special holiday if November 11 occurs on a Sunday.

May I suggest that the Reverend and Gentleman ascertain the facts before making statements concerning the Canadian Legion, which are not true.

I have recently returned from the Dominion convention of the Canadian Legion held in Edmonton, May 25 to 30 inclusive and here is the resolution passed by the convention and which is the parliament of the Legion.

1. Remembrance Day to be observed on November 11th.

"Whereas there is an effort being made to fix Remembrance Day and other statutory holidays by holding them on the Monday nearest the holiday.

"Therefore be it resolved that Remembrance Day be observed on November 11th."

This resolution was passed unanimously and to my knowledge if November 11th occurs on a Sunday the observance has always taken place on that day and on no other day. I think if the Venerable D. S. Catchpole will recall only a short time ago that the Legion held the service at the Cenotaph on Sunday, Nov. 11th and most certainly has not the slightest idea of making any change of remembering "Our Fallen Comrades."

Yours truly,
P. F. HILBORN,
Branch Past President and Deputy Zone Commander, Canadian Legion.

OTTAWA REPORT

Small Firms Needing Help

By PATRICK ICHOLSON
(Specially Written for The Kelowna Daily Courier)

OTTAWA: Assistance for small businesses was one of Prime Minister John Diefenbaker's election promises.

"Across this nation, as in every nation, small businesses constitute to a major degree the backbone of small communities, and even of larger communities," declared the Prime Minister, speaking at an election meeting at Brantford, Ontario, last February.

And he went on to promise the creation of a "small business section," within the administrative machinery of the government, which would receive representations from any small businessman, and proffer advice if sought, and supervise economic assistance to small businesses through a special loan fund.

Two thoughts lay behind this bold new policy.

The first was that the independent grocer on the city street corner site, and the general store in the village, are essential to our way of life; or, in Mr. Diefenbaker's own words, they are a major part of the backbone of every community.

There may or may not be social or economic merit in the cracker-barrel parliament gathered around the pot-bellied stove in every old-time village; there may be little of gracious living about a pot-bellied stove in these days of progress. But this government's attitude evidently sees no improvement and no sociological benefit in the impersonal and identical branch of a chain store, often managed by a "foreigner" to the district, in no way serving as an outlet for local produce, and inevitably heading us towards the undesirable end of stranglehold monopoly.

EASIER CREDIT LIKELY

The second relates to the special loan fund, and obviously stems from criticism voiced so often by the Conservatives when they were in opposition to a Liberal Government; that the Liberal policy of "tight money" was starving the small business of credit needed for expansion, and thus left opportunity wide open and competition-free to chain stores and U.S. branch businesses and the like, whose supply of money was not squeezed, coming from corporate or parent sources.

Already the government is showing close interest in practices which may be damaging to small businesses. Such are loss-leader selling, and price preferences offered by wholesalers. The tobacco, hardware, jeweller and electrical equipment trades are all under the microscope here in this connection.

FULTON PROMISES HELP

Justice Minister Davie Fulton, who as a lawyer in Kamloops, is a sort of small business man himself, outlined the government's attitude in a speech to the Retail Merchants Association at their recent convention in Vancouver. One serious problem facing the government, he told me later, is how to define a "small business."

A second problem, he said, and in this case also the government is awaiting advice and suggestions from small businessmen, is just how and to what extent it can help the little man to hold his position against the encroaching drive of the chain and the giant.

Both small businesses and also consumers might help by forming local or specialized associations to watch and state their cases.

For the government also intends to study carefully this philosophical point: considering both the long view and the short view, in the interest of the community including both businessman and consumer, does the small business "merit" thoroughgoing assistance?

Alaska's Star Poses Problem

NEW YORK (AP)—Where will they put the 49th star for Alaska on the U.S. flag?

The law doesn't specify the arrangement of the stars, and many have been thinking up ways to accommodate the newest state. Some of them are pretty fanciful.

The most likely way is to change the present six rows of eight stars to seven rows of seven stars. The arrangement is changed by executive order, meaning the president has the final word.

The Alaskan star will be the first new one since New Mexico and Arizona became states in 1912.

By act of Congress in 1818, whenever a new state is admitted the flag is changed on the following fourth of July.

Old 48-star flags don't have to be destroyed. It's perfectly proper to fly them as long as they are in good condition.

Rutland Boy Scouts Plan Long Hike End Of July

The group committee of the day, July 13 Isaac Dawe of Ver-Rutland Boy Scouts met on Friday evening to discuss the services will be at the regular time of 9:45 a.m.

The suggested outing for this year was a travelling camp, with the trip going by car and truck. A four-day Beaverdel to-day weekend were Miss Kay Grand Forks, with a stop-over at Gray, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Christina Lake, then back over Freeman and son Dougie, all of the Southern B.C. Highway to Kamloops.

The school band's contest to guess the time in which a clock would run down after winding was won by the following C. A. Shunter, Mary Caldwell, Fran Morrison, C. F. Applin-Flouche.

Mrs. George Reith arrived back from the coast last weekend after spending some time under the doctor's care, as a result of the recent bus accident near Hope. Mrs. Reith is still not fully recovered from her experience.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Gillard for the holiday weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Don Gillard and infant daughter, of Penticton, and Mr. and Mrs. George Handlen of Bridge River.

Miss Shirley Campbell, of Royal Inland Hospital, Kamloops, who just returned from a six weeks course at Essondale on psychiatric nursing, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bleasdale for her summer holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Drinkwater and children motored down to the coast to visit relatives for a short holiday.

Miss Donna Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Anderson, left on Thursday last for Howe Sound to attend the CGIT Camp Council being held there.

Mr. and Mrs. Ron Angus and family are moving into the Neil Kerr house on the Belgo. Mr. and Mrs. Kerr and family have moved to Creston.

The United Church services during July will be curtailed during the absence of Rev. J. A. B. Adams on holidays. There will be no services on the last two Sunday, July 20 and 27, but on Sunday, July 6, Russ Hawley of the Kelowna Gideons Society will conduct the service, and on Sunday, July 13, Isaac Dawe of Ver-

Colorful Decorations Planned For Princess

The down-town area travelled by Princess Margaret during the bridge-opening ceremony, will be gaily decorated with flags and bunting.

Last night the committee in charge of the bridge opening celebration authorized the purchasing of $1,200 of decorations. Flags and colorful streamers, crests and crowns will be erected on lamp standards on Bernard Avenue to as far as Pandosy, and on Pandosy to Harvey Avenue. The Canadian Ensign will also fly on top of Ogoogo Stadium and from the ballroom.

It was pointed out the city normally spends $300 a year on flags, so the money spent on decorations for Princess Margaret will not be wasted.

Entrance and exit pillars to the City Park will also be tastefully decorated. It is understood the provincial government has agreed to undertake decorating the causeway route, from Abbott Street to the bridge proper.

DECORATE HOMES

Residents living on South Pandosy and the Okanagan Mission road are also being urged to decorate their homes with flags and bunting. Her Royal Highness is expected to travel back and forth from temporary Government House on several occasions. Home owners are also requested to clean up unsightly property, and if necessary, apply the odd coat of paint to fences and buildings.

Over 4,000 special tickets have already been distributed among school children for the welcoming ceremony at Ogoogo Stadium, Friday evening, July 18. Another thousand admittance tickets will be given to Scouts, Cubs, Brownies, Girl Guides, Sea Cadets, Pathfinders and Sea Rangers.

Special arrangements have been made for seating about 1,000 senior citizens, elderly people and disabled war veterans in the city park oval grandstand for the actual bridge opening ceremony. The park will be closed to cars, although special passes will be given to service vehicles.

PRESS HEADQUARTERS

The former ferry tea room will be used as a press and radio headquarters. Around 200 special correspondents are expected here, and plans have been made to entertain newspaper, TV and radio representatives while in the city.

A diversified entertainment program has been lined up. This will include band concerts, an aquacade and dance at the Aquatic Friday night; fireworks display; Lions Football Game and open-air dancing in the City Park Saturday evening.

The hundred-and-one details involved in such a celebration, are gradually being "jelled" into one pattern, and by the time the next meeting is held next Thursday, it is expected the over-all plan will have been knitted into final form.

Many People Visit Friends At Peachland

PEACHLAND — Mrs. E. G. Aitkens returned to her home in Vancouver on Sunday, following a holiday of two weeks at the home of Mrs. M. Ferguson, Trepanier. Mrs. Aitkens is a former resident of Peachland, and during her visit she was entertained by her friends, at many social functions.

Aage Madson, who recently arrived in Canada from Denmark for his son's wedding in Vancouver, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Spackman, for a few days enroute to Calgary and other points in Alberta.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Gerrie have returned home from Valemount, to spend the summer holidays. Their daughter, Miss Shirley Moe Gerrie is also home from her teaching duties at New Westminster.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kopp motored to Spokane for the weekend.

Recent visitors at the home of Mrs. L. Ayres, Trepanier, were Diane Russell, Jean Northrup, and her two brothers, George and Bobbie, all from Summerland.

Mrs. F. E. Wraight was a visitor to Glenmore for a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Topham, with their young son of Vancouver, are spending two weeks holiday at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Topham Jr.

Fire Destroys Tractor, Mower At Westbank

WESTBANK — A tractor and a rotary mower were almost completely destroyed at Sunnyside ranch when a gasoline drum exploded.

Johnny Quong was filling the tractor and when the fire started he tried to pull the mower away. Quong sustained slight burns.

About 300 gallons of gasoline was in the tank. A nearby shed, one of the oldest buildings in Westbank, was scorched but not seriously damaged.

The fire and explosion caused damage to a transformer and disrupted power and telephone service. Due to phone lines being at the Westbank volunteer fire brigade was half an hour late getting to the scene. Firemen remained for an hour to extinguish small fires in the immediate area.

MEET AT ARMSTRONG

Next quarterly meeting of the Okanagan Valley Municipal Association will be held at Armstrong, July 10, starting at 2 p.m. The council was advised Monday night.

SPEED UP PROJECT

Some doubts have arisen that the city's B.C. centennial project, the addition of Memorial Arch, will not be completed by the 15 deadline and city council investigating ways and means speed up the project.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Inglis left on a holiday trip to the Shuswap district on Monday evening, taking their young daughter, Cheryl with them. Their son, Wayne is spending the summer with his grandfather, C. T. Redstone, and his uncle, R. C. Redstone at their fishing camp at Hatheume Lake, situated ten miles or so beyond Brecken Lake. Marilyn Inglis is holidaying with Rosalie Young, in Summerland, for a couple of weeks.

Glenn Avenue To Become Part Of Lawrence Ave.

City council Monday night gave final approval to bylaw 1990 which authorizes changing the name of Glenn Avenue to Lawrence Avenue. The change will become official later this week when the bylaw is registered with the Land Registry Office at Kamloops.

Final reading also was given to bylaw 1991, which rezones the property at 924 Bernard Ave. (Prince Charles Lodge) from Zone "G" residential to Zone "I" multiple dwelling and four lots on Bertram St. from residential to Zone "C" light industry.

Two of the lots are owned by Okanagan Telephone Co., immediately south of the exchange office, and where additional facilities are being erected. The other two lots are across the street; one owned by the West Kootenay Power and Light Co., and used to store poles; the other is the city-owned lot on which the city's electrical substation and workshop are located.

Ski Club Seeks Plane Base Use

Application of the recently-formed winter skiing club for a long term lease on lakeshore property at the foot of Cawston Ave., has been approved in principle but deferred to study associated problems, such as land access, which would have to be over property leased by Canadian Pacific Railway.

The property sought by the water skiers has been held by the city for some time as a probable site for an amphibious plane base. It is possible that the property will be used for both purposes.

Council Wants To Fire 21-Gun Royal Salute

Countermanning of an order by B.C. area army headquarters is being sought by city council so that a 21-gun salute may be fired when Princess Margaret arrives in the city July 18.

Council has sent a telegram to Ottawa headquarters seeking permission to have the salute fired by Sherman tank guns, which the B.C. Dragoons have in this area.

"Have One NOW!"

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Gerrie have returned home from Valemount, to spend the summer holidays. Their daughter, Miss Shirley Moe Gerrie is also home from her teaching duties at New Westminster.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kopp motored to Spokane for the weekend.

Recent visitors at the home of Mrs. L. Ayres, Trepanier, were Diane Russell, Jean Northrup, and her two brothers, George and Bobbie, all from Summerland.

Mrs. F. E. Wraight was a visitor to Glenmore for a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Topham, with their young son of Vancouver, are spending two weeks holiday at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Topham Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. David Sinclair motored from Vancouver at the weekend to visit Mrs. Sinclair's aunt, Mrs. Frank Sidebotham, who is returning with them to the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Follett with their two sons, Billy and Todd, of Vancouver are visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. West for the long weekend. Bob West is also home from Trail for the holiday. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Macintosh, stopped enroute to their home in North Vancouver, to visit Mr. and Mrs. West.

J. H. Wilson and his son Noel arrived at the weekend from Vancouver for a short holiday.

The Totem Twirlers Square Dance Club celebrated their first anniversary at a party night on Saturday, June 28. A good crowd enjoyed dancing, with Ray Fredrickson, Summerland as M.C. and guest callers, dancers from Vernon to Okanagan, Wash., with one couple from Trail, were in attendance. Della Flomming had made a beautiful anniversary cake, decorated with one candle, which was enjoyed by all the crowd.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Inglis left on a holiday trip to the Shuswap district on Monday evening, taking their young daughter, Cheryl with them. Their son, Wayne is spending the summer with his grandfather, C. T. Redstone, and his uncle, R. C. Redstone at their fishing camp at Hatheume Lake, situated ten miles or so beyond Brecken Lake. ## Vernon Plans Half-Holiday And A Big Reception For Princess

VERNON — Retail Merchant's Association and Mayor Frank Becker are hoping to declare a partial civic holiday from 3 p.m. onwards, the afternoon of Friday, July 18, the day Her Royal Highness, Princess Margaret will visit Vernon.

The mayor today announced the official itinerary of the royal visit. Princess Margaret will land on Kalamalka Lake, east of Rotary Pier, about 4:30 p.m. on July 18, by amphibian Mallard aircraft.

Reception party will include Mayor and Mrs. J. B. Smith, of Enderby; Mayor and Mrs. J. Pottery, of Armstrong; Reeve and Mrs. J. B. Kidston, of Coldstream; Reeve and Mrs. D. MacDonald, of Spallumcheen; Commissioner and Mrs. N. R. "Pat" Money, of Calgary, and will run until August 23.

Silver Star, a 4,600-foot mountain, the base of which is about nine miles from Vernon city centre, was originally known as Aberdeen Mountain.

The area was gazetted Silver Star about 10 years ago after the Canadian Board of Geographical names had been assured that residents in the area from Kelowna to Armstrong were in agreement with the alteration. Judge Charles W. Morrow, then MLA for the North Okanagan, was instrumental in having the change made.

Silver Star is one of a chain known as the Aberdeen Range, and was so named just before 1900 in honor of Lord Aberdeen, who bought the Coldstream Ranch in 1891 and became Governor General of Canada in 1893, holding that post until 1898.

The first time "Silver Star" crept into the scenic and actual picture was in 1899, when the B.C. Mines report for that year referred to the "Silver Star Mining Company claim", located on Aberdeen Mountain. The mine still exists. In 1922, the B.C. Gazette brought into being the Aberdeen Mountain Forest Reserve. This is a wide area, of which Silver Star is one of the peaks. "Silver Star Park" was gazetted in 1940.

The memory of the Late Lord Aberdeen is already perpetuated in this district by Aberdeen Lake and Aberdeen Road.

A group, known as the Silver Star Development Association has recently been formed, which wishes to develop the area into an all-year round playground.

Vernon Board of Trade last week went on record as being in favor of re-classification of Silver Star Park from "A" to "C", and agreed at the same time, not to press the government for year-round maintenance of the road on which $150,000 has been spent over a period of years. The first group to press for the road construction was the trade board, members of which worked for

New Art Centre Will Open Today At Carrs Landing

A new art centre opens today at Carrs Landing. The Paddock Summer School of Fine Arts at Okanagan Centre is underway as a featured part of the Paddock Holiday resort.

Sessions in weaving, ceramics, and painting for beginners and advanced students will continue to August 29 under a prominent staff of instructors headed by Evelyn Cools Middleton.

Offering picnic facilities for commuters or accommodation for residents, the art centre has a spacious studio, canteen, and organized care of children.

Enrollment deadline for the second session, July 21-31, is July 12. For the third and fourth sessions in August, the deadlines are July 26 and August 6.

"Once-in-Lifetime" Chance
Must Be Taken Now(Courier Sports Editor)
By GEORGE INGLIS

THE ORCHARD CITY might be in danger of losing the biggest plum ever grown in its local orchard—somebody doesn't get busy cultivating.

The plum—one which will bring a revenue of a million dollars worth of world-wide publicity—is the proposed trip of the Packers hockey club to Russia. Somewhere along the line the Packers are going to get lost in the shuffle if there isn't some concrete evidence of action on a wide-scale community basis pretty soon.

The Packers' purse is so lean right at the moment they are unable to take care of their commitments from last season, whereas there are one or two tire companies and a certain eastern contractor with fat cheque books at the alert position, waiting for the Orchard City to make the move, and if they falter—look out!

The CAHA will undoubtedly remain dubious about the ability of Kelowna to undertake their end of the venture—particularly in the face of the gates for the western Canadian playoffs—and will have to be shown. When they were persuaded to choose Packers, by dint of much persuasive talking on the part of the western representatives, they did so in the face of the ready, willing and able angels from the east.

However, unless the wise men from the west come through with something more concrete than the desire they have shown to date, the matter of changing the name of the team to make the trip would not only be easy, but inevitable.

Should anything along this line occur, Kelownians would receive an irreparable black eye. They would make themselves the laughing-stock of tourist-minded communities all over the country. They would label themselves the "men without a clue," in passing up such a golden opportunity. Let's not have that happen.

THE TASK OF RAISING MONEY, one of the prime concerns in the success or failure of the hockey club to be able to take the trip, is one of concern to the whole community, and should be placed immediately into the hands of a special, live-wire committee set up especially for that purpose.

When the Imperial Oil donated a $50 cheque to the hockey club a month ago, for the purpose of the "on to Moscow" expenses, they anticipated that it would be the first of a landslide of donations, as it was three years ago when they kicked through with a similar donation for the Pentiction V's. Instead, they didn't even raise a snowflake. The donation was received with thanks, and large amounts of nothing have been done since.

It's ridiculous to try to make the hockey club executive the whipping-boys for the situation, as has been done to a certain extent recently. It's not the hockey club, but the city of Kelowna that is identified with the trip, in the eyes of John Q. Public, and it will be the city that will look foolish should the trip come to naught, due to lack of activity.

NO AMOUNT OF ORATORY will bring another such chance to the door of the city again. This is a "once-in-a-lifetime" shot, and there will be no second tries. Success or failure will be a pretty permanent mark on the records.

And in case it is just Okanagan lethargy that is holding up the action—let's forget about that. It is now the month of July. May and June sneaked away on us, two months in which player negotiations have been humming busily in other cities. They were also open months in which we should have been organizing the "Operation Moolah" that is long overdue.

If there is not some concrete action within the next week or so, the date of holidays is fast upon us, and the possibility of negotiations with the CAHA will be difficult.

Some excellent schemes have come to our ideas in connection with the problem of transporting the team to Russia, and the men who have broached them have been hollering up a rain barrel so far, since there is no machinery set up to feed the plans into. Some foolproof money-raising proposals have been propounded by men with knowledge of such matters, but once again, they have simply been whistling in the dark.

THE ANNUAL HOCKEY CLUB MEETING, set for this Friday at 8 p.m. in the Canadian Legion hall, should resolve a few problems about next year's operation, and should enable the new exec to get going on the problem of next year's hockey club. But they have to have some assurance that they are going to be backed, or they will have a tough time getting the calibre of player to cope with the November tour adequately.

Down in Pentiction, where they haven't any hopes for the year other than to enter a hockey club in the OSHL, and try to win the odd game, they have a kitty of somewhere in the neighborhood of $16,000, their ears tell us. While we do not recommend emulation of the Peach City in all their strange ways of finance, we would like to say to the Orchard City's still-unformed committee, "Go thou, and do likewise."

Nothing would be finer news, to the ears of the hockey fans who gather at the annual meeting Friday night, than the information that a committee had already been formed, and was ready to swing into action.

THE CITY ANTICIPATES an influx of visitors in the next two months that should total well over 100,000, and the majority of these people would be willing to help contribute if it was put in the right way to them. This is where the committee would be able to function. Come up with some ideas for presenting the Packers' cause, and the ultimate cause of Kelowna.

Anyone who has heard about the Hawaiian undertakers, who support tourism whole heartedly, will readily see the parallel here. The members of the undertaking profession support tourism in the Islands because anything that is good for the community eventually benefits every member of it. The prosperous people buy better boxes.

Here, also there is not one person who calls himself a permanent member of Kelowna who will not benefit by the wave of national publicity the tour will bring to the city. It's too big a thing to miff, and as real to the city as sewers or sidewalks, as far as advancing the best interests of everyone concerned.

Let's not handle it like bushers.

"This injustice may rob us of a chance to get a shot at Virgil Akins' welterweight crown," said Mafuz. "It gives them a chance to duck Logart. It's a decision like this that causes investigations in boxing."

The 25-year-old Cuban is the No. 1 challenger for the welterweight championship.

The B.C. Lions, 1958 centennial version, will be back in town this weekend, ready to sweat off a few pounds in the City Park oval for the next two weeks, terminating their camp with an inter-squad game on Saturday, July 19. One of last year's squad, popular defensive end Dr. Jim "Doc" Michener, is seen above at last year's camp. Head coach Clem Crowe and his hopefuls will arrive at the Royal Anne Hotel tomorrow night, the time to be announced.

Summer Figure Skating Opens 2nd Season Here

The interior's only summer figure skating school started operation again yesterday, with some 60 skaters enjoying the variety supplied by skating inside while the mercury hovers around 90 outside.

Operated by Mrs. Jean Ross Beaton, the Orchard City's pioneer venture into this field proved to be such a success last year that most of the students, from the four western provinces and neighboring U.S. states, are returning this year.

Winnie Silverthorne of the Glencoe Club in Calgary will be one of Mrs. Beaton's assistant pros again this year, with Gerald Woodstrom of Omaha, Neb., taking the other instructor's berth.

The school will be active until Aug. 31, with skating from 7:00 a.m. to 8:30 p.m., with a break from 1-2 for lunch. The dance periods, probably more interesting to a spectator, are held on Mondays and Thursdays, 8:30 to 10:30 p.m., and spectators are welcome to drop in any time to witness the school's activities.

Mrs. Beaton, formerly a pro at the Capilano Winter Club in North Vancouver, is a gold medalist, and a fully qualified instructor before coming to Kelowna last year, to found the summer skating school, which was one of two west of the Great Lakes last summer. This summer there are two in Vancouver, and one in Victoria.

Miss Silverthorne, five years the pro at the Glencoe Club in Calgary, was a competitor on the 1948 Olympic team, in pairs; British pairs champion; a double

Seek Cuba's Scalp In Davis Cup Meet

By WILF GRUBSON

Canadian Press Staff Writer

TORONTO (CP)—Lorne Main, a fine tennis player by Canadian standards who never crashed his way into top international ranking, is playing a new role with the same sure-fire confidence that made him strive for years for recognition among the world's top amateurs.

As playing captain of Canada's Davis Cup team which opens its best - of - five challenge round against Cuba today, the 27-year-old Main is going about the job with deadly seriousness.

He's intent solely on making sure that his squad whips Cuba as expected and then is ready to give a creditable showing against the United States—although there is little chance of beating the Americans.

CAREFUL PLAN

The winner of the Canada-Cuba first-round North American zone tie plays the U.S. here starting next Thursday. Main, a Vancouver native now working in Montreal, has been following a well-laid-out plan to bring the Canadian squad to peak form.

Although making no outright predictions, he confidently expects his veteran team of Bob Bedard of Sherbrooke, Que., and Fontana of Toronto and Paul Willey of Vancouver will have little trouble in beating the Cubans, possibly by sweeping all four singles and one doubles match.

All the Canadians have had at least four years of Davis Cup competition and tough tournament play on grass courts while only one of the three-man Cuban team, 20-year-old Raul Karman, has ever played for the Davis Cup.

MEETS FONTANA—Karman, ranked No. 1 in Cuba when that country's top international players, Orlando and Reynaldo Garrido, couldn't get away from their European tour commitments to play in Cuba and qualify for the team, meets the 27-year-old Fontana, second-ranking Canadian player, in the opening singles.

The other singles match for the first day brings 16-year-old Adolfo Minoza, Cuban junior champion, against the 26-year-old Bedard, Canada's No. 1 player. The doubles—with the pairings yet to be named—will be played Friday and the two concluding singles Saturday. The matches are being played at the Toronto Cricket, Skating and Curling Club.

Flyers' Base Running Livens Up Exhibition

The Fairchild Flyers had a parting shot at the Kelowna Orioles before leaving town, last night, when they edged the locals, 8-7, in a seven-inning exhibition game at Elks' Stadium.

Beyond the first-inning rash of six stolen bases by the Flyers and some consistently clever base running by O'Dell Buchanan, fleet-footed third baseman and short-stop Bob Senske, the game was dull and slow-moving.

Fairchild showed much better command on the bases, although their hitting was not as good as the Orioles, and both clubs were guilty of a fair amount of bobbles.

STOLE SIX

The Flyers jumped into a 3-0 lead in their first time at bats on one hit, three walks, and a bobble, stealing six bases on their way around. The Orioles only replied with one, in spite of leading the bases twice on one hit, one hit-by-pitcher, a bobble and a walk.

The Flyers came back with two more, when Buchanan hit a single out to right field and stretched it into a triple by twinkle-toed running, driving in Collins ahead of him, and com-

Little Leaguer Slams In Spades

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Mike Williams pitched a no-hitter and hit two grand-slam home runs in one inning Wednesday night. It happened in a Little League baseball game as Williams led his Superior Dairy team to a 19-1 triumph over Darden Pet Shop, striking out 14.

BIG PROGRAM

LONDON (CP) — Britain now has two completed atomic power stations for electricity, six under construction and two more being planned.

Lane's Bad Deal Hot For Redlegs

The big right-hander, plucked from the minors by Cincinnati after the St. Louis Cardinals had given up on him, has been the ace of the Redleg pitching staff since, running up a 41-26 record in 2½ seasons.

Rookie right-hander Zack Monroe broke into the spotlight Wednesday night when he pitched a five-hitter, mopped up after Monroe tired. Wednesday he allowed five hits in seven innings. Ryno Duren mopped up after Monroe tired.

O'DELL LOSES

Billy O'Dell (8-9) gave up a run on three singles in the first, then blanked the Yankees until the seventh, when Tony Kubek's single scored the winning run. Bunning, the right-hander who was hard-pressed to win 20 last season and found it tough to win at all this spring, walked but two and struck out five while winning his fourth in a row for a 6-5 record.

League with a 1-0 decision over first-place Milwaukee.

GIANTS DOWN CUBS

The Braves' lead was trimmed to three games again over St. Louis and San Francisco as the third-place Giants defeated Chicago Cubs 5-2 in the only other NL game scheduled.

Lawrence, 33, the Bull of the Cardinal bullpen when he had a 15-6 record in 1954, was traded to the Reds by Lane, then general manager for the Cards, for pitcher Jackie Collum in January, 1956. He promptly won 19 for the Redlegs in their near-miss pennant rush of '56. Last year he was 16-13.

Now he's 6-3 with two shutouts, giving up just one hit after the third inning at Milwaukee in a duel with young Joey Jay, who lost with a five-hitter. Gus Bell and Smoky Burgess each had two of the Redleg hits, with Bell's fly ball driving in the run in the third after Johnny Temple doubled and went to third on an infield out.

The Giants moved within .001 of a percentage point of the Cardinals as Ray Jablonski, Bob Schmidt and Willie Mays hit home runs for the second consecutive day.

Jabbo's came with a man on in the sixth, overhauling a 2-1 Cub lead built on Lee Walls' 16th home run.

Mays' homer also was No. 16 while Jablonski got No. 7 and Schmidt No. 12 as Dick Drott lost his fifth in a row for a 3-6 record. Stu Miller won it for a 2-4 record, with both victories over the Cubs, but Johnny Antonelli had to get the final out.

Pancho's Comeback Good For $15,000

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Defending champion Pancho Gonzales had trouble defeating Tex Hartwig Wednesday night in the $15,000 Masters round-robin professional tennis tournament.

The erratic Hartwig won the first set 10-8 but Gonzales came from behind to win the last two 8-6, 6-2.

Pancho Segura won his third victory, trouncing Lew Hoad 6-2, 6-4. He is tied with Frank Sedgman for the singles lead at 3-0.

Gonzales is 3-1. Hartwig is 1-4 and Hoad is 0-4.

The Phoenix Giants turned on an awesome display of power last night to trample Vancouver's helpless Mounties into submission as the two top Pacific Coast League clubs got their go-for-broke series under way.

It was the Giants in a breeze, 11-5, in the opener as they rattled out five homers and eight other hits off four Vancouver hurlers, including the cream of the Mounties mound staff.

The victory shoved the Giants up into first place and the Mounties, leaders before last night, down into third place, two percentage points behind the San Diego Padres, who won a 16-inning, 12-11 cliff-hanger from the Salt Lake City Bees.

The Seattle Rainiers whitewashed Portland 3-0 in the only other game played. Rain washed out Sacramento at Spokane.

Don Taussig slammed out two homers to lead the Phoenix assault. Other roundtrippers came off the bats of Phoenix's Willie McCovey, Dusty Rhodes and George Prescott and Vancouver's Spider Jorgensen.

Glenn McMin won it for the Giants, although he had to have help from Ernie Broglio, Mel Heid started for the Mounties but he took the long walk after giving up nine hits in only 3 2-3 innings of play. Joe Hatten, Jim Hughes and Russ Heman finished up.

Chuck Churn, Seattle's 6 foot 3 inch right-hander, served up a six-hitter in blanking the Beavers threatened in the eighth when they got two men on with two out but Churn got Frank Kellert to hit into a force play.

The Rainiers got their first run in the first and finished up with two more in the eighth. The Beavers threatened in the eighth when they got two men on with two out but Churn got Frank Kellert to hit into a force play.

Tribe's Big 4 Leave Wigwag; Lemon's Last

CLEVELAND (AP)—The last of Cleveland Indians' once-famed big four is leaving the wigwag. A baseball era here has ended—an era in which four strong right-handers dominated American League pitching and over a six-year period won three-fourths of the Tribe's victories.

The last to go is 37-year-old Bob Lemon, the Californian with an impish grin and a sinking fast ball that made him a 20-game winner for seven seasons. Waivers were asked on him Wednesday and he plans to leave Saturday for San Diego in the Pacific Coast League.

FELLER FIRST

The first to go was Bob Feller, who retired after the 1956 season. Last month Mike Garcia was waived out of the league. He underwent back surgery.

Still pitching, but not for Cleveland, is Early Wynn, whose current 8-6 record is for Chicago White Sox.

Wynn and Garcia joined Feller and Lemon and the Tribe in 1949. From that season through 1954, when the Indians won 111 games and a pennant, the big four averaged a total of 71½ victories a season.

Easy To Change Sheath Into The Trapeze Dress

Last year's sheath can be this year's high style with the addition of a high-waisted sheer overskirt, says sewing expert Martha Blair.

The new "trapeze" style is very popular with many women because it is so comfortable and concealing. On the other hand, any woman proud of her figure thinks twice before investing in a garment that almost denies she's a lady. Now, say Pfaff designers, you can have your "trapeze" and keep your figure too. All it takes is a few yards of organdy and your sewing machine.

Pick your favorite sheath, preferably with a high, empire line, just below the bust. Buy three yards of matching organdy and two yards of matching velvet ribbon. Cut the organdy into three one-yard lengths. Cut a "trapeze" shaped gore from each length by measuring 12 inches in from each selvage along one raw edge, cutting from the outside corner to the 12-inch point on each side. Sew the three gores together with two seams. Turn and hem the two remaining lengthwise edges. This is the front opening of the overskirt.

Now measure around yourself just below the bustline. Gather the top of the overskirt to this length, centre it on the wrong side of the velvet ribbon and top stitch ribbon to organdy. Tack the overskirt to the sheath dress at several points, tie ribbon in a big bow, and hem the organdy to the dress length. Hosiery tape in the hem will make the overskirt stand out full for the triangular look.

Mrs. Blair suggests that you make a whole color wardrobe of these overskirts for a long-range style investment. Should the "trapeze" go out of style and waistlines reappear, just tie the ribbon at your waist, take up the hem of the skirt, and be proud you "kept your figure" all the while.

First United Church Scene Of Van Ryswyk-Minette Ceremony

Baskets of white shasta daisies and babies' breath adorned First United Church for the afternoon wedding on Saturday, June 28, when Alwilda Audrey, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Minette, Kelowna, became the bride of Albert Leonard van Ryswyk, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard van Ryswyk, Ladner. Rev. D. M. Perley and Rev. R. S. Leitch conducted the double ring ceremony.

A Viennese-waltz inspired gown of imported Fabergé lace in traditional white was worn by the bride, who was given in marriage by her father. Styled over white satin, the bodice featured a sabrina neckline and long lily-point sleeves. From the tight-fitting waistline, soft folds fell in full apron effect. A wide satin bow set off the rows of ruffled tulle which widened gradually to the hem at the back.

An iridescent sequin-encrusted bandeau secured her chapel-length veil of French illusion net, and she wore single pearl earrings. Pink roses and orange blossoms formed the colonial bridal bouquet.

A pink waist-smocked frock was worn by little Linda Minosky, the bride's cousin, who acted as flower girl. Pink gloves and a pink hair ribbon completed this pretty picture, and she carried a colonial nosegay of pale yellow daisies accented by a pink rose in the centre.

As her sister's maid of honor, Miss June Minette was gowned in two-toned turquoise Georgette crepe, with semi-full gored skirt from a princess waistline. Her small caplet was fashioned of two braided bands of matching material, crossed at either side and seed-pearl trimmed. She wore shoes and gloves en tone and carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations.

"The Lord's Prayer" was sung by Mr. Ernest Burnett as the bride arrived at the altar, and he sang "O Perfect Love" during the signing of the register. Ushers were the Messrs. Gerald Geen and Jack Stewart. Mr. Roy van Ryswyk served as his brother's groomsmen.

Over 100 guests attended the reception held at the Kelowna Aquatic. A three-tiered wedding cake topped with wedding bells and lily of the valley, and trimmed with pink rosebuds, nestled in white tulle, in which pink rosebuds were tucked, centred the bride's table.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Minette chose a dusty rose lace sheath, with empire waist and matching jacket. Her blending pink hat featured a rippled brim and flowers entone. Other accessories were white and she wore a white carnation corsage. The groom's mother wore a pink ensemble, accessorized in white.

The bridal toast was proposed by Mr. Peter Scheelar, the bride's uncle and suitable response was given by the groom.

Traditionalist Wins Recognition

In view of the storm caused by the paintings chosen to represent Canadian art at the Brussels World Fair, the article by Kenneth Forbes in the current Maclean's magazine is most timely.

Mr. Forbes describes the paintings as "modernistic nonsense, neither good paintings nor representative of Canadian Art."

Mr. Forbes' qualifications for expressing an opinion are an acceptance of a score of paintings by the Royal Academy in London and the twice winning of the portrait prize of the National Academy of America. He declares "that modernistic painting is the greatest hoax in the history of human arts. So completely have the people who control the buying and exhibiting of art been seduced by the modernists, that today the traditionalist painters find it nearly impossible to get a viewing." He points out that modern art is an excuse for not learning the fundamentals of a difficult profession.

Mr. Forbes tells us that "Painting, like the other arts is a medium of communication. The painter must convey to the viewer some scene, experience or insight from the world of reality. If he fails to do so, then his art has failed, and modernistic art fails to communicate. It is the art dealers of the world, not the artists or art lovers, who have been able to persuade an incredible number and assortment of otherwise intelligent and honest people to see magnificence where only ugliness exists. Fear of being ridiculed as unperceptive and dull is leading men and women of great influence in the world to stand apart before framed abominations."

A propos of the above we learn with pride of the Paris Salon acceptance of two pastels by the Summerland artist Irvine Adams. Acceptance at this Salon is considered to be of the highest honor. This is Mr. Adams' second showing there. One of the paintings "Noonday Glow" was shown in Kelowna last fall. Due to a misunderstanding in dates the paintings arrived too late for the Royal Academy London showing. They will be submitted to the Summer Salon at the London Royal Institute Gallery. In the past Mr. Adams has won honor in Miami, Florida and in New York.

Mainly, because of ignorance, pastel has been considered perishable. Handled properly it is the most permanent medium known to man. Unlike water color and oils, pigment never fades or changes. It can be left at any stage of a composition.

Mr. Adams' painting which is traditional landscape has been criticised as too photographic but those of us who love beauty know that his work does indeed communicate all the reality which is the Okanagan Valley.

Mr. Adams earns his living as a logger and paints in the evening after work and any time he can spare from his job. Mrs. Adams is a writer, a specialist in Indian folk lore. Their home is a Shangri-La set amidst a lovely flower garden and fruit trees with two mountain brooks meeting on the door step.

Mary Gowen Bride In Pretty Scene

Baskets of Esther Reed daisies interspersed with baby's breath flanked the altar steps, and white brocaded taffeta circular bows centred with red rosebuds marked the pews, at St. Michael and All Angels' Anglican Church on Saturday afternoon, June 21, for the double-ring ceremony uniting in marriage Mary Elizabeth, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Gowen, Vernon Road, and Deane Henry, only son of Mrs. H. H. Miller and the late Mr. Miller, all of Kelowna. Archdeacon D. S. Catchpole officiated. The bride is a 1958 graduate of the Royal Columbian Hospital School of Nursing, New Westminster.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a floor-length gown of white nylon chiffon over satin, bouffant over crisp layers of net and taffeta and hooped crinoline. The scoop neckline and short cap sleeves were formed by a deep band of shirred chiffon, piped in white satin. Three bands of gathered Chantilly lace circled the skirt, and her elbow length gloves were of white net.

A small cap-shaped tiara of seed pearls and rhinestones held her circular, chapel length French net veil, and the bridal bouquet was of deep pink roses and stephanotis. The groom's gift of cultured pearls with matching earrings completed her ensemble.

Mrs. Allan Anderson, sister of the groom, was the bride's only attendant, and wore a cocktail length crinolined dress of shot silk crepe in a rose shade. A rolled collar outlined the circular neckline—which dipped to a point at the back ending with a bow.

Her gloves were of the same material as her dress, and a headband of Esther Reed daisies mixed with florets of turquoise satin ribbon matched her bouquet. The matron of honor's costume was completed by white pumps and pearl button earrings entone with the shade of her dress.

The bride's mother chose a two piece model of geranium shaded crepe, trimmed in cream lace. Her wide-brimmed hat was trimmed with cream lace and a circlet of tiny flowers, and her corsage was of Talisman roses.

The groom's mother was attired in aqua blue and white bouffant print nylon, with matching blue flower-trimmed hat, white gloves and white shoes and corsage of pink carnations.

Mr. Allan Anderson was groomsmen for his brother-in-law, and ushers were the bride's brother, Bob Gowen, and Al Pritchard.

Mr. F. T. Marriage played the wedding music, and appropriate selections during the signing of the register.

At the reception for 75 guests held in the Panoramic Room of the Aquatic Club, the toast to the bride was proposed by Dr. Harold Henderson—and was suitably responded to by the groom.

The lounge was tastefully decorated for the occasion with bouquets of Esther Reed daisies, coral bells, baby's breath and pink snapdragons.

The three-tiered wedding cake centred the bride's lace-covered table was topped with pink rosebuds, and the same pink rosebuds were nestled in the pink and white tulle surrounding the cake. Lighted tapers in silver candelabra, with a lovely arrangement of pink rosebuds and stephanotis sent by friends of the bride in Caston, B.C. who were unable to be present for the wedding—also graced the bride's table.

Serviteurs were all fellow nursing graduates of the bride who had travelled to Kelowna especially for the occasion and included: Miss Joan Hildred, Miss Phyllis Bogdane, Miss Helen Pushkarenko, Mrs. Molly Boyd, Miss Florence Torsma.

Aunts of the bride, Mrs. Ernest Gowen of Ladner, and Mrs. George Hardie of Kelowna—presided at the urns.

For going away the bride chose a mauve shantung sheath dress with white accessories, and a corsage of pink rosebuds and stephanotis.

Amid showers of confetti and good wishes the couple left for their honeymoon trip by car to the United States, and upon their return will reside in their new home at 2405 Taylor Crescent, Kelowna.

Guests from out of town included: Mr. and Mrs. E. Gowen, Ladner, B.C.; Miss Joan Hildred, Miss Phyllis Bogdane, Miss Helen Pushkarenko, Seattle, Wash.; Miss Flo Torsma and Miss Marie Edmeston from New Westminster, B.C.; and Mrs. Molly Boyd from Vernon, B.C.

Canadians Keep Eye On Sea Lion

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Canadians are to be keeping an eye on their escaped sea lion until its scheduled return to Storybook Gardens zoo in London, Ont., next Sunday.

After a hectic chase around Lake Erie the sea lion was captured in a Sandusky Bay boat-house last Friday by Toledo zoo officials.

BIG BLAST SIGNALS COMPLETION OF ST. LAWRENCE SEAWAY PROJECT

Explosion of a coffer dam on Dominion day signals the last major step towards completion of the $120,000,000 St. Lawrence seaway and power project. When 30 tons of explosives were touched off, water roared down the new lake bed forming a lake 35 miles long and five miles wide, which will provide electricity to power parched Ontario. Thousands of people streamed into the area and Ontario Hydro provided temporary parking for about 5,000 cars on fields and lots near the dam. All access from the town of Long Sault to the new dam were cut off before the explosion.

Man's Decision To Forego Beer Saves Lives Of Two Children

MARINETTE, Wis. (AP)—A man changed his mind and walked to Authorities Wednesday, credited with the rescue of two children trapped in an unused freezer to a Michigan man's decision not to pause for a beer.

Henry Herson of nearby Menominee visited Owen Brown's tavern at nearby Porterfield, Wis., Tuesday to look at a freezer Brown had for sale.

Herson decided to have a beer before looking at the freezer, but

Labor Urges Air Monopoly Be Delayed

OTTAWA (CP)—The Canadian Labor Congress today urged the federal government to support the views of air consultant Stephen Wheatcroft who suggested break up of Trans-Canada Air Lines' transcontinental monopoly be delayed until the mid-1960s.

Stanley Knowles, CLC executive vice-president, said in a statement that the British consultant realized he was making his report to a government which favored the creation of competition on the trans-continental run.

The fact that Mr. Wheatcroft urged caution and delay in ending TCA's exclusive franchise should be a clear warning to the government to reconsider its position.

"We urge that no steps be taken that would weaken the position of the nationally-owned airline."

Minister, U.S. Air Force Agree On Flight Times

ABILENE, Tex. (AP)—A minister and those who use the heavens reached an agreement. The U.S. Air Force gave Rev. Bob Jackson—under certain circumstances—the right to tell it when its planes could fly and when they couldn't.

It happened this way: The rural Baptist church didn't mind at first when Dyess air force base aimed its runway at the small, long-established church. After all, propeller-driven planes don't make too much noise.

Then came the jets. The base added more and more craft, most of which roared for altitude only 400 feet above the church.

After a few Sundays of sitting there, more shaken by sound than sermon, the congregation's leaders told air base authorities their woes.

The air force sent a couple of officers to listen to a sermon. They agreed it was a deafening experience.

So the air force agreed to telephone Rev. Jackson and ask permission for mass flights to take off except in emergencies.

HE KNUCKLED UNDER

One night the pastor received a call from a major in charge of a flight of 15 planes from another base.

"Say," the major shouted in disbelief, "The tower tells me I've got to clear with you before I can take off."

Rev. Jackson, a peaceful man, also Doukhobor movements. Sons of Freedom Doukhobors, long associated with arson and bombings, have welcomed the increased police action.

"They are listing every Doukhobor car that moves—so proof exists that we are home when the bombs blow," said Bill Moolsky of Shoreacres, spokesman for the turbulent Freedomite sect, who has blamed the outrages on enemies seeking to discredit the Sons.

Meanwhile the $25,000 reward posted by the B.C. government for arrest of those responsible for recent bombings remains without claimants.

Has Its Own Civic Float

VERNON — Vernon accepted the invitation of Lumby Days promoters, by being present in the big Lumby parade Tuesday.

Vernon's permanent float, finished late last week, made its maiden appearance at Lumby's celebrations. It will also participate in all Okanagan summer-time celebrations.

Designed and finished by A. H. Forstrom and George Eastman, the 24-foot, self-propelled float is of plywood on an iron frame.

The theme of the float is "Vernon, by Kalamalka, the Lake of Many Colors." A sail boat ploughs through simulated surf.

Khrushchev Reported Planning New Steps For World Peace

WASHINGTON (AP)—Premier Khrushchev is reported to have proposed some new steps Russia and Western countries might take to prevent surprise bombing attacks against each other.

What they are, and how the United States views them, was not known pending further developments, possibly today.

The Soviet leader is understood to have mentioned them in an unexpected letter he sent to President Eisenhower Wednesday.

The state department, after translating the 4 1/2 page document, sent a copy to Eisenhower Wednesday night.

The Soviet charge d'affaires Sergei Striganov, said Khrushchev's new message is "an important new initiative" by Moscow to ease East-West tensions.

Hospital Also Protests The New Sewer Rental Costs

Kelowna General Hospital has joined the mounting protests over the city's new sewer rental charges.

Already being considered by the city council are several protests, chief one being from the auto courts, motels and hotels.

The hospital administrator, C. F. Lavery, in a letter read at city council meeting Monday night, pointed out that since 1948 the hospital charges for sewer rental was $290, but this year the charge

Lumby Churches Hold Service

LUMBY — A centennial church service was held by the combined congregations of the Anglican, United, and Pentecostal churches in the United Church. The Rev. C. E. Motte retired United Church clergyman was in charge. Prayers were given by T. Bailey representing the Anglican Church in the absence of Rev. R. R. Lett who is ill. The sermon was given by Rev. L. A. Pennoyer of the Pentecostal Church on the subject "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God." There was a full attendance, and the collection was given as a donation to the British and Foreign Bible Society.

The reaction of such a service was a demonstration of the fellowship and good will in the religious life of the community, and gave to the centennial celebrations their spiritual meaning.

Baptist Claims Christians Lose To Buddhism

TORONTO (CP)—Anti-Christian movements are making more converts than the Christian Church, says Dr. Theodore Adams, president of the Baptist World Alliance.

Speaking Wednesday night at the closing session of the fifth World Baptist Youth conference, the American clergyman said:

"We are not the only missionary faith in the world today. We face an awakened Buddhism that is making thousands of converts, especially in India and Burma; an aroused Mohammedanism is out to win a world of its faith; Moslems in Africa have been making three times as many converts as Christianity."

"...they both enjoy BLACK LABEL"

He likes its refreshing flavor — she enjoys its milder taste — that's why they get together with Black Label, the beer that's brewed right here in B.C. Keep a case on hand for yourselves — and for visiting he's and she's!
